Presidential booming has so the appearance of a mere skirmish line engagement. Serious work has hardly begun. It known that the President favors the President and Mr. Fairbanks and Mr. Foraker favor each respectively himself. Meanwhile far sighted observers are saying, "Watch the star of La Follette!" Governor Hughes of New York is no impossibility. Something will depend on the fight between him and the worm eaten machine which he inherited from Platt, Odell and that class of statesmen, who were like roaring lions yesterday but who are to all appearance now, "lame with Nineveh and Tyre." There is of course no telling who will be nominated or who if nominated, will be elected, but the strenuous and progressive administrative days since McKinley appear to have put a gulf impassable between the Presidency and the old war horses and jades like Foraker and Fairbanks.

An apparently important qualification in the Secretaries of United States legations is expert dancing. According to the social reports from London, Paris and St. Petersburg our Secretaries are "acknowledged to be the best dancers" in the diplomatic set. We should do our best to see that this glory does not fade. In order to preserve our reputation unblemished why not have dancing added to the civil service examination requirements?

Tom Lawson says the advice he has given his friends has cost him fifteen million dollars. But alas! what has it cost his friends?

"In 1897 I had a stomach disease. Some physicians said dyspepsia, none consumption. One said I would not live until spring. For four years I existed on bull milk, soda biscuits, and doctors' prescriptions. I could not digest anything I ate. Then I picked up one of your almanacs and it happened to be my life-saver. I bought a fifty-cent bottle of Kodol and the benefit I received from that bottle all the gold in Georgia could not buy. In two months I went back to my work as a machinist, and in three months I was well and hearty. May you live long and prosper." G. N. Cornell, Rodding, Ga., 1906. The above is only a sample of the great good that is daily done everywhere by Kodol for dyspepsia. It is sold here by the J. F. Crow Drug Co.

Mrs. Russell Sage has announced that she has set aside ten million dollars for the endowment of what is to be known as the "Sage Foundation" to carry on philanthropic work throughout the United States. The object will be to improve social and living conditions in the country.

Government ownership of the railroads is one of those propositions that "seen too oft, familiar with its face we first endure, then pity, then embrace." At least that is the way it looks now after the horror and dismay that followed Bryan's speech.

The only person who seems to have his feelings badly hurt in the Wall street scrimmage is Secretary Cortelyou. He had already commenced proceedings to divorce the Treasury and Wall street and he was called on to pay alimony in advance.

The Department of Agriculture has issued a bulletin telling how to test the purity of beer. Most people will cling to the old way of deciding, though, that is to drink it and then see if you bilious the next day.

A brother of John D. Rockefeller has lost a quarter of a million dollars in a mining swindle. As it was about his entire fortune he is doubtless repeating his classic quotation, "Them as has gets."

Mansfield is again accused of having beaten his leading lady. He takes care not to have a brain storm of this kind in New Jersey where they have the whipping post.

Ex Ambassador Meyer says in an interview, "Conditions in Russia have greatly improved since I left there." Very few persons would have been so frank.

The President is said to call Secretary Taft "Will," but the thing that interests Messrs. Fairbanks, Foraker and Cannon is what the people will call him.

A new metal has been discovered which will take the place of nickel and will not rust. But who ever kept his nickels long enough for them to rust, anyway?

Asphalt has advanced in price forty cents a foot, but a majority of people are more interested to know how much ice is going to cost.

After having visited the Lethum it is probable that Uncle Joe is saying that the Canal is not completed by a Gatun dam site.

The Russian Dumas exhibits all the signs of an approaching "brain storm."

It is a farmer's work to watch and observe the crop of the details of the year, he knows just what each crop has cost him; where his gain and losses come from, and by his close study and application he will the next year lessen the losses and increase the gain. The farmer needs the trained mind as badly as the store or the railroad offices. The Tyler Commercial College has many young men taking their thorough courses of Bookkeeping and Business Training with the sole aim of going back to the farm and making the best farmers in their community, and leaders in all progressive movements.

The farmer needs to be able to write a good hand, to spell correctly, to figure rapidly and accurately, to know how to write deeds, or to know how to write mortgages, notes, contracts, bills of sale, etc. We would advise our young men who are farmers or who expect to farm to give this matter careful consideration. The cost of the course is very small compared to the returns it will bring. The first year after you complete such a course will more than reimburse you for the entire expense. Write the only school in this country that is devoting any attention whatever to this subject for catalogue, mentioning that you are interested in Farm Accounting—the Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas.

The poor prices realized for vegetables the past two seasons have made a serious discouragement to truck growing in East Texas, and many farmers will go back to corn and cotton almost entirely.

Now that this: They alleged that two-thirds of the men of Jefferson visited prostitution. "Citizen" asserted that he had nothing kind, and more, he has made the positive statement that any man, either married or single, visited such places. "Citizen" used this language: "Now the writer has been informed, how correctly we cannot say, that near two-thirds of the married men of Jefferson," etc. In this statement we merely assert that we have been so "informed" and that we don't know whether it is true or not.

Now "Citizen" cannot swear that any man visits such places in our town, and we feel that it is an honor that we can not. We feel that to be able to assert positively that any man or number of men visited such places would put us in a rather suspicious position, as there is but one place a person can be to be able to say positively who visits such places and upon what business. And it seems that we would have to be in a rather suspicious place to assert positively that any man or number of men does not visit such places. Somebody is likely to ask how you know. I think these "ducks" had better release their "June bug" before they find it to be a wisp.

The writer wants to correct an error. We stated that we were informed that there were "four houses containing white women" in Jefferson. Later reports tell us that at the time that statement was made there were six houses containing nine women. The writer heard that a man proposed to marry and reform one of these women. She answered that she could not live on $40 per month. If this be true, the fact that she is living proves that she makes over $40 per month. We have no reason to believe that she makes more than the average, hence we calculate nine women at $40 per month and we have $360 per month or $4,320 per year. This money is paid by men and proves one of two things, to-wit: That a great number of men visit these places or that those who do visit them very near stay there. The writer seriously doubts if these figures are large enough, but if they are it would buy in one year 172,800 loaves of bread, or would feed 60 hungry children 365 days.

and remember the next time you suffer from pain—caused by damp weather—when your head nearly bursts from neuralgia—try Ballard's Snow Liniment. It will cure you. After using it I am pleased to say that now I am free from these complaints. I am sure I owe this to your liniment." For sale by W. J. Sedberry.

The Texas Senate has discharged the committee which was investigating Bailey by a vote of 15 to 11. As Others Saw Him.

The artist possessed a strange talent. It was to depict a face as it will look after the years have gone by and made it old. At dinner with him sat a man, old enough, in all conscience, and unbecomingly. The artist at once busied himself with drawing a sketch of him which so exaggerated his age and ugliness that the lip of the old man trembled at the sight of it, and a tear rose to his eye. A woman who sat at the same table took pencil and paper and began to draw, not the old man, but the artist, who, though young, was quite as unbecomingly. She fashioned the uneven line of his profile, the small, crooked nose, the unstable chin, the high, bald forehead, the fringe of hair around the edge of the baldness, the neck, the collar, and handed it to him.

"The likeness is perfect," cried the others. "We didn't know you could draw. When did you learn and how?"

"I can't remember when I learned or how, I have drawn so long," said she, "but," as she saw the chagrin of the artist, "I seem to have been educated in art for the triumph of this moment."—New York Press.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

The Balm gives without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation.

With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Rheumatic Pains Relieved.

Got His Reward.

"I saw a young fellow who thought he'd be funny get the worst of it. He boarded the car right behind a very pretty girl whom, it was plain to see, he did not know. When I went for his fare, he gave me a dime. 'For that young lady, too,' he said, pointing at the girl, two seats ahead. When I went along up the car, the girl held out a nickel. I told her her fare had been paid.

"By whom?" she demanded. I pointed to the young man out. He was smiling in a sickly manner.

"You've made a mistake," the girl said to me, loud enough for him to hear; "he meant to pay for this colored woman."

"She dropped the five cent piece in my hand and pointed at an old negro woman ahead. I saw how the girl had 'got it on' the young man, so when the negro woman offered her fare I told her it had been paid by him. The young fellow decided things were getting too warm for him on that car, so he got off at the next corner. As he left the car the negro woman said, 'Much obliged, sah!'

"You ought to have seen the girl laugh."—Denver Post.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Both Agreeable and Effective.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no superior for coughs, colds and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contain nothing in any way injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. S. Pelham, a merchant of Kirksville, Iowa, says: "For more than twenty years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. It is specially successful in cases of croup, children like it and my customers who have used it will not take any other." For sale by all druggists.

Drunkards in Norway.

In Norway drunkenness is punished by imprisonment. When a man is incarcerated he has a loaf and wine supplied to him morning and evening. The bread is served in a wooden bowl full of wine, in which it has been soaked for an hour. The first day the prisoner swallows his allowance willingly enough. The second day it seems less pleasing, and at the end of the eight or ten days men have been known to abstain altogether from the food thus presented. Except in rare instances the drunkard is cured by this treatment.

Given Up to Me.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured. Why not let it help you?" Sold by The J. F. Crow Drug Co.

The Wife's Reason.

One of the late Sir Francis Evans' elections for Southampton occurred when he was in America, and his wife undertook to conduct the campaign. Addressing a crowded meeting, she said: "I ask you to vote for my husband because I love him and he cannot speak for himself. I know he will keep all the promises I have made in his name because he loves me." "That's the right sort of home rule," some one shouted out, and the lady had the gratification of seeing her husband elected with a most satisfactory majority.—St. James' Gazette.

Cause of Stomach Troubles.
